Aloha River at Hula Hula Bay ~ Park’s Biggest Expansion Ever!

White Water gets bigger and better in 2011 with an all-new, highly-themed tropical adventure, Aloha River at Hula Hula Bay. A whole new area of the park is being created to become a setting of lush Polynesian jungles reminiscent of the South Pacific. Floating riders can maneuver the calm waters through the tropical greenery – yet will meet with unexpected twists and turns, water features, fountains, misters, geysers and more. This 800-plus-foot river (that's the length of two-and-a-half football fields!) is the park's longest, wettest, coolest ride yet. Along the journey, there will be new seating areas and cabanas.

Aloha River, opening in late May, is designed with mom in mind as the fun can be drenching or not, while remaining within the action.

White Water offers more than 12 acres of thrilling tropical adventures from mild to wild. Favorites include the 7-story Kalani Towers for speed racing excitement, the Tropical Twister, The Bermuda Triangle and more!

And by popular request, Night Water at White Water will be offered during the 2011 season.
