

Silver Dollar City®
and the Missouri Commission for the Deaf & Hard of Hearing
Present
Deaf Awareness Weekend
August 14, 2010

Deaf Awareness Weekend is hosted by Silver Dollar City and the Missouri Commission for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing. This special event is designed to make the park more enjoyable for people with hearing loss, and to help the general public become more aware and understanding of people who are deaf and hard of hearing. On Saturday, August 14, there will be information booths set up in the entrance area of Silver Dollar City, with interpreters located at the shows and at the Guest Relations Booth.

Moms, Dads, Grandmas, Grandpas, Friends and Families...
You Have A Great Past Ahead Of You® at Silver Dollar City!
Deaf Awareness Weekend – August 14 & 15, 2010

August 14th – (Open 9:30am – 6:00pm)
August 15th – (Open 10:00am – 6:00pm)

Special Discounted Prices for Deaf Awareness Weekend Participants

	Special 2-Day August 14th & 15th rate	Regular 1-Day Ticket
Adult (12+)	$51.59 ($48 + tax)*	$56.96 ($53 + tax)
Child (4-11)	$40.84 ($38 + tax)*	$46.21 ($43 + tax)

Silver Dollar City Policy in 2010 provides FREE admission to Silver Dollar City for those who are deaf, blind, or full-time wheel-chair users. During this special weekend, we will recognize both deaf and hard of hearing people to help promote hearing loss awareness.*

For more information, you can contact the Missouri Commission for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing at 573-526-5205.

2nd Day has no refund value. Not valid with any other offers or previously purchased tickets. Ticket rates and event dates subject to change. Interpreters provided by the MCDHH on Saturday, August 14, 2010 only